

control human scent, it comes with an Odorsmart anti-microbial fleece lining. The jacket also has several zippered pockets on the chest and left sleeve plus hand-warmer pockets.

Dubarry. Celebrating 75 years of Irish craftsmanship, Dubarry introduces the Keating, a classic European cut, waterproof, breathable GORE-TEX lined quilted jacket. The handsome coat is two-layer but lightweight, with a highly breathable mesh lining. The technology offers a broad thermal comfort range with a stylishly tailored look that will fare well in the field or about town. Features include two fleece hand-warming pockets, four snap pockets, adjustable cuff and YKK zippers.

Eddie Bauer. If you spend a lot of time at an outdoor range, you've probably shot your share of rounds in the rain.

Designed with just such a situation in mind, Bauer's shooting jacket is built with their waterproof, breathable, windproof Weatheredge technology to keep you comfortably bustin' 'em in all sorts of weather.

The jacket has inside shoulder pockets to accommodate recoil pads, a zip-closure inside pocket, two specially designed drop-in pockets that each holds a box of shells, and some more pockets in case you're big on that sort of thing. An adjustable, removable hood and storm cuffs keep rain and wind out while mesh-lined rear shoulder vents help regulate body temperatures.

Eddie Bauer's performance fit is designed for both hunting and shooting and allows unrestricted arm movement, both up and forward, while reducing bulk.

Filson. The Tin Cruiser jacket was originally patterned for the Pacific Northwest's timber cruisers. Made from wind-resistant, highly water-repellent Tin Cloth, it has a double back, forming a full-width rear pocket for extra storage. The Cruiser includes two roomy utility pockets, unlined hand-warmer pockets, upper utility pockets, a slotted pocket and a small front pocket. American made.

Galazan. This season the New Britain, Connecticut company is bringing out the Herringbone Tweed Shooting Vest and West London Shooting Vest. These fine new vests are functional as well as complimentary to any shooting sportsman's wardrobe. The wool tweed construction makes them the perfect three-season vest – wear them alone or under a jacket during the cooler months.

The four-button front closure and adjustable half belt at the waist make for a comfortable fit, while the large bellows pockets can hold everything you need when shooting. Both vests have soft leather shooting patches on each shoulder, and the West London Shooting Vest has leather-trimmed pockets as well. The vests have a full interior lining with lined, zippered interior pockets. Both are naturally water- and stain-resistant.

Gaston J. Glock. "Providing exceptional products made from natural and organic materials while enhancing the outdoor experience." That's the mantra of Gaston J. Glock, and the Hunting Sweater, made from genuine 100-percent Donegal lamb's wool, is a prime example. A natural product of the finest quality, Donegal lamb's wool is only produced in the county of Donegal, Ireland.

ACCESSORIES

Concealed Carrie. More women than ever are carrying handguns. And while most are excellent shots and can pop off three rounds at three feet in three seconds, they still want to look fashionable while wacking a perp.

In response to the ladies' growing demand for stylish concealment, Concealed Carrie introduces the Crossbody Compact handbag.

The vertical solution maximizes function and space. The unique compact design includes a discreetly hidden ambidextrous exterior firearm compartment for quick and easy access. The main compartment offers storage pockets with additional room for personal items. Always nice to have some fresh lipstick on when the cops arrive. The removable shoulder strap easily adjusts for cross-body comfort, and a removable adjustable Velcro holster, key chain and fashion tassel are included.

Any compact or sub-compact handgun will fit in this handbag, including a Glock 19/23, Glock 23/27, J frame revolver or similar size handgun.

Offered in black or olive microfiber with both black or brown leather printed in crocodile trim, this handbag is discreetly dangerous.

David Morgan. Built of 100-percent rabbit fur for durability, the Akubra Adventurer hat will keep your dome warm, even when its soaking wet. Great for sun and rain protection, the Akubra has a roan leather sweatband that's sturdy but comfy.

The hat ships open crown or uncreased. With some steam and your hands, you can customize the look of the hat to your own liking. For a $20 fee, the folks at David Morgan will shape the hat into the Indiana Jones style. But the folks at Morgan think it's more fun for customers, and makes for a more interesting story, if they do it themselves.

The lid is made in good ol' Australia by Akubra, a company that's been building quality fur felt hats for over 100 years.

Filson. The durable and functional Sportsman Bag comes with features inspired by Filson's best-selling hunting jackets. These include a front outer pocket and two end-pockets with two-finger snaps. There's also a double back pocket and a game bag-style opening.
